

9. 4. 2007, Ich malte ein Haus und einen
Himmel

Hermann König.

TÁRT KAPU GALÉRIA

Budapest, 1092, Hőgyes Endre u. 2.

Tel.: +36/70-771-23-41

Email: info@tartkapugaleria.com

Website: www.tartkapugaleria.com

Opening hours: Tuesday-Friday 1-6 pm.

Kunsthhaus Kannen
Museum für Outsider Art und Art Brut

INVITATION

Outsider art from Germany

Exhibition of Kunsthaus Kannen

We cordially invite you to the debuting exhibition of Kunsthaus Kannen.

Opening: 29 May 2013 - 6 pm.

Location: 1092 Budapest, Hőgyes Endre utca 2.

Hosts of the event are Dr. Szabolcs Horváth, Chairman of Foundation „For Healing Course” and Ákos Sajó, Council of IX. District of Budapest

Greetings: Márta Nagy, Policy Officer of Culture Programme, Goethe Institute.

The exhibition will be opened by Erzsébet Katalin Komáromi, textile artist, art therapist.

Kunsthaus Kannen, the Outsider Art / Art Brut Museum of Germany is opening their first guest exhibition in Hungary. On this occasion five outsider artists' (Hermann König, Karl Bergenthal, Georg Brinkschulte, Josef Schwaf, Paul Weidemann) works will be displayed in Tárt Kapu Galéria.

The Museum located by the entrance of the park of Alexianer Psychiatric Clinic in Münster, has served as the premises for exhibitions from the field of art brut and outsider art for 30 years.

Due to its collection of 5000 pieces, it's art studio consisting of several individual spaces, the numerous exhibitions organized both in Germany and abroad, Kunsthaus Kannen has become one of the most outstanding hub for the international art brut and outsider art sphere.

Their 'Model Project of the Community of Disabled Artists' serves a unique role within Germany.

<http://www.kunsthhaus-kannen.de/>